

Worcestershire Archaeology Day 2018

Saturday 17 November 10am-5pm

University of Worcester, St John's Campus

Come and join us for our yearly Archaeology Day, with talks from staff and guests about excavations, discoveries and projects around the county. Talks include:

- Fascinating Finds 2018
- Digitising The Charles Archive
- The Aldington Beaker
- Origins of Worcester Revisited
- Testpits in White Ladies Aston
- Worcestershire Farmsteads
- Excavations at Bredon & Offenham

Explore the Past

Worcestershire Archaeology Day 2018

University of Worcester, St John's Campus

Tickets £22 includes tea/coffee & biscuits on arrival, mid-morning and afternoon.

You can book online at <https://e-services.worcestershire.gov.uk/LibraryEvents/EventDetails.aspx?id=565> or you can return this form to us with a cheque for £22

I would like to book Archaeology Day places

I enclose a cheque for total amount of £ made payable to Worcestershire County Council.

Name:

Names of additional people:

Phone No:.....

Address:.....

.....

Post Code:

Email:

Please return booking form part of this flyer with your cheque to Worcestershire Archive and Archaeology Service, The Hive,
Sawmill Walk, The Butts, Worcester WR1 3PD
Your details will only be used in relation to this event

Any queries: 01905 766352 or explorepast@worcestershire.gov.uk