

Berkeley's Hospital still here
Berkeley's Hospital

Theatre close & sit of former Co-op.
Shakespeare pub next door now called The Crickets, but this pub inspired the name Shakey's for the take-away nearby

Drinking fountain gone

Trinity Street
not created yet

St. Nicholas's Church
(History Book no 700)

St Nicholas now home to Slug & Lettuce, although it's still a consecrated church so could go back to being a church in the future

Bank still Lloyds Bank

Public hall has gone and is now the Cornmarket car park

Lines in road are tracks for horse drawn trams

St Martin's Church still here but the school has gone

Courts are not law courts but houses built around a courtyard. Many people would live here and they would be dark, dingy, damp

The courts have long gone now

Worcestershire sauce
now made elsewhere

Road layout and many buildings would be familiar today, but with different fronts

CORN
MARKET
