

Somewhere in France

Oct- 10th 15

Dear Dad

Just a few lines in answer to your letter, and to thank you very much for flags they were just the ones I required, and was very pleased with them.

I hope you are all in good health at home. I am sorry

Dear Dad

I was very pleased to have a good long letter from you, and to know you were all going on alright at home.

Well Dad what sort of weather are you having in dear old Blighty, we are having winter here with a vengeance, we had another very deep snow yesterday, like a blizzard all day, and it is just about cold, it fills all the trenches up and then blows

Dear Dad

I hope you will excuse me for not writing to you for such a long time, as you know we don't get much time for writing. I was very pleased to get a letter from you and to know how you were all getting on at home. I suppose it is not all so gay in "Blighty" now, with the limits on the food supplies, and one and another. Did you see Syd when he came over I expect it was a pleasant surprise for you, I sent the old watch back I thought

Just a few lines hoping you are in the best of health. and to let you know I am still in the pink and going on bright.
I hope you have got something like straight in the new house, it was a pity you couldn't get somewhere ^{else} I expect the house is abright, but I don't like the place.
Well Dad I was pleased when I saw the Shuttle to-day as regards the semi-final by jove what a tight go it was for you, I don't expect you fancied your chance much before the contest, it was a repetition of the final three years ago I should think, and your match seems as though it was the toughest of the lot, losing 13-7 and then going and making a win by the

Dear Dad

I hope you will excuse me not writing for a such a time. I wrote to you about a day before I had your letter so I expect you have had that one by now. Well Dad I am pleased to say I am going on abright and in the best of health.
Did you see in the Shuttle where young Cyril Robert had been captured out in Egypt.
Syd is close to where I am and he is waiting for news
